Canada, New England sites for honeymoon motor trip

The newly-wed Lonny G. Maschos have been making their home at 417½ E. Shaw in Charlotte, Mich. since their return from a two weeks honeymoon through Canada and the New England states.

Marilyn Fischer, the daughter of Nick and Teresa Fischer of Haggerty Road, Belleville, became Mrs. Mascho in a recent summer wedding at St. Anthony's Catholic Church. The Rev. Dennis Martell conducted the single ring rite at six in the evening.

St. Anthony's Folk Group provided wedding music and the bride's sisters, Mrs. Larry Ellison and Mrs. Gregory Bator, sang "The Wedding Song" and a communion hymn.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride appeared in a white polyester sheer knit gown embellished with lace appliques. A Queen Anne neckline, lace bishop sleeves and a pleated center panel and chapel train also distinguished the A-line creation.

MR. AND MRS. LONNY G. MASCHO

A soft-brimmed lace picture hat accented with seed pearls and ribbons secured her silk illusion veil while a bouquet of cascading white silk roses, lilies of the valley and fresh baby's breath, made by her sister, Mrs. Ellison, completed her bridal finery.

Mrs. Joseph Lewek Jr. of Hartland was matron of honor at her sister's wedding. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gregory Bator of Novi and Mrs. Larry Ellison of Monroe and a cousin, Joann Fischer of Detroit.

Their gowns of baby blue qiana were fashioned with halter bodices, pleated skirts and matching jackets with tulip sleeves. They tucked blue silk rosebuds and starflowers in their hair and carried white lace fans adorned with pale blue silk starflowers, stardust gyp and daisies, all made by the bride.

The bride's two nieces, Melissa and Monica Lewek of Hartland, were junior bridesmaids in puffed sleeved baby blue taffeta frocks which had been made by their mother.

Youngsters in the bridal coterie included Tracey Fischer and Lori Lewek, nieces of the bride, who donned little white dotted swiss frocks and carried white parasols for their roles as flower girls. Lance Snyder, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

The son of Leroy and Shirley Mascho of McBride, Mich., the bridegroom asked his brother, Larry Mascho of Lake Odessa to be best man. Others on the esquire side were James Fischer of Ypsilanti, brother of the bride, and Michael Snyder of Vestaburg and Mike Bailey of Edmore, both brothers-in-law of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Fischer chose for her daughter's wedding a baby blue polyester knit gown to which she pinned her corsage of baby blue silk roses and baby's breath. Similar flowers accented the pale orange polyester knit gown which the bridegroom's mother wore.

Some 175 relatives and friends gathered at the Pvt. James D. Donovan VFW Hall in Dearborn Heights for the reception which followed.

A 1971 alumna of Belleville High School, the new Mrs. Mascho is employed as a legal secretary with the firm of Skalland and Sanders in Charlotte.

Her husband graduated in 1970 from Montabella High School, served for four years with the U. S. Navy and is now a self-employed barber at The Shear Place in Charlotte.

Little Caesar's in Belleville was the setting for the rehearsal dinner given by the bridegroom's parents.

Work leftovers 'magic' with post-holiday strata

Be sure to set aside some of those luscious leftovers from the big bird for After Thanksgiving Strata. It's a winning combination of stuffing cubes, broccoli, turkey and cheese that will make the second turkey go-around just as enjoyable as the first.

This economical, but elegant, entree is conveniently make-ahead too! You can easily serve it to company or to the family even after a busy fall day of work, meetings, family fun or any other activity on your schedule.

After Thanksgiving Strata

- 4 cups (about 7 to 8 oz.) herb-seasoned stuffing cubes, divided
- 1 package (10 oz.) frozen chopped broccoli, thawed and drained

- 1 cup diced cooked turkey or chicken OR 1 can (5 to 6½ oz.) boned chicken
 - ½ cup shredded Cheddar cheese
 - 3 tablespoons thinly sliced green onions with tops
 - 6 eggs
 - 1½ cups milk
 - 2 tablespoons sliced blanched almonds, Green onions, optional
- Sprinkle 2 cups of the stuffing cubes over bottom of greased 8x8x2-inch baking dish. Sprinkle broccoli, turkey, cheese and onions over cubes. Sprinkle with remaining cubes. Blend together eggs and milk. Pour over stuffing mixture. Sprinkle with almonds. Cover. Refrigerate several hours or overnight. Bake in preheated 350 degree oven until golden brown, about 50 to 60 minutes. Garnish with additional green onions, if desired. Serves 6.

Cottenhams feted on 25th

The 25th anniversary of their marriage was observed Nov. 9 by Melvin and Virginia Cottenham when their children honored them at a reception in their home at 9859 Barkley, Belleville.

Some 60 relatives and friends congratulated the "bride and groom" including their best man, Ralph Cottenham of Wayne, and bridesmaid, Verma Le Blanc of Taylor, brother and sister of the Cottenhams, respectively.

For the occasion a specially decorated silver, white and blue wedding cake was made by the couple's daughter, Cindy.

Now the parents of three daughters and one son and the grandparents of four youngsters, the Cottenhams started their married life on Nov. 9, 1957 when they exchanged vows at the Salvation Army Church in Wyandotte. Their eldest, Cheryl Finney and her husband, William, reside in Belleville; Lori Hill and her husband, Kenny, make their home in Jacksonville, Fla. while Rick and Cynthia are still at home.

Mr. Cottenham has worked as a carpenter in the Belleville area for the past 15 years. His wife is employed as a check-out supervisor at the K-Mart store in Lakewood Shopping Center.

Home Arts Club has crafts night

A crafts night featuring pine cone plaques was on the agenda Nov. 8 for the Home Arts Club of Belleville. Charlotte Budd instructed the group in the pre-Christmas project.

During the business session conducted by Mary Kosin, president, the group discussed the recipes used at the October smorgasboard and Betty Gott volunteered to have copies made for the members. Plans for the traditional holiday party were announced with Mrs. Kosin extending an invitation to hold the festivities at her home on Elwell Road. The customary exchange of handmade or homemade gifts will take place at that time. Hostesses for the evening to the 11 members and one guest, Susan Henst, were Rhoda Chapo and Muriel Wolfe who served assorted cookies, nut breads, tea and coffee.

Quotes worth quoting . . .

"Education makes a people easy to lead, but difficult to drive; easy to govern, but impossible to enslave."

Baron Brougham said it.

Suburban Living Editor

The radio—in my car—turns me into a very angry person every so often; like every Thursday enroute to work as I listen to good ol' J.P. ask for listeners' opinions, suggestions and losers and/or winners of the day.

I get steamed because he then proceeds to castrate those callers with whom I, as a member of the listening audience, am identifying. And if they feel as foolish as I feel for them, they are feeling darn foolish.

Why oh why do those of the Mc Carthy-Bonds-Donahue ilk insist on pressing their conclusions and ideas on their audiences? Dammit J.P., I tell him frequently, shut up and let folks air their views! And quit telling them they're wrong!

This A.M. the subject was (again) the pro footballers tentative strike settlement, an issue that had long since become nauseous. Mr. EGO was having a field day blasting the teams and what he would do if he were the owners but when a caller nominated the sulking pro players as losers of the day, J.P. immediately took offense and began to harangue, intimidate and embarrass the poor soul. (The fact you were named one of the three most influential people in the Detroit media, I told him, doesn't automatically make you most knowledgeable, too!)

Then there's Phil Donahue, who at one time had the most interesting talk show on TV (when it was two-sided.) He, especially, has become downright obnoxious, discourteous and intimidating as well. Not only does he contradict statements but hardly allows his guests to get a word in edgewise. He seems to have taken on the roll of the all-knowing guru as he flails away at his "victims."

As for Bill Bonds, he's still one of my favorite (next to Jack LeGoff) but already there's that tendency toward "almightyism"—the philosophizing, expounding and sermonizing. Don't do it, Bill, even if you are another third of the media's triangular hierarchy.

The reason my shackles get up stems from English lit classes in high school. Remember those days when we were required to read Shakespeare, Sir Walter Scott, Tennyson and their in-depth peers and were then asked our interpretation of the works? Well, we could interpret to our hearts content but if we differed with Miss Brown, we were wrong. And our marks depended on giving an opinion that meshed with hers. Excellent teacher that she was, she had this particular idiosyncrasy that left us with B's rather than A's in her class. We always wondered how she knew what ol' Willie S. really meant. As smart alecky juniors we, naturally, figured she'd known him personally.

Sunday sermons on scripture also can rattle me since hardly ever (in all these years—and they're getting to be a "few") have I heard two clergymen interpret Matthew, Mark, Luke or John in the same context. It gets to be a wee bit confusing at times.

Naturally, I'm no longer in the clutches of Miss B., I've long since given up on Mr. D. and seldom switch to Mr. B. However, I'm still part of that "priestly" assembly—both Fr. H's and Joseph P's—but that's only because I especially like the Fella represented by the former and the guy who's part of the latter's stint—a no-nonsense type who always gives it to us straight—Mr. McM. the weatherman! There's no talking back there!

SIGN OF OUR TIMES

THE "REVOLUTION" for many young people down through the ages has been a timely carte blanche to abandon the slow and diligent task of making something of themselves and to go out in the open air with their friends and make trouble.

Niagara Falls honeymoon follows autumn ceremony

In an early autumn ceremony at St. Stephen's Catholic Church of New Boston, Tammy Ilene Suggs and James Joseph Kozmor exchanged wedding bands and nuptial vows.

The four o'clock rite, conducted by The Rev. Alexander Wytrowski on Oct. 9, united in marriage the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Jewell of Ellis Road, New Boston, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kozmor of Sibley Road, New Boston.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES J. KOZMOR

The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather and grandfather, Roy Suggs. For her wedding day she chose to wear a full-sleeved ivory organza and chantilly lace gown styled with a high lace neckline above an illusion yoke. The toe-touching skirt featured a scalloped lace train which drifted to cathedral length from a high "V" at the back.

A little lace headpiece secured her lace-trimmed veil which was cut in mid-back length and a colonial arrangement of peach and ivory silk rosebuds and white statice completed her bridal finery.

High-necked sheer jackets topped the peach giana frocks which the bridal ensemble wore for the occasion. Tucking combs of matching silk flowers in their hair and carrying chamber lights encircled with silk blooms were the honor attendant, Joyce Hughey of New Boston; Linda Wegienka, of New Boston, the bride's cousin; Marsha Kozmor of Wyandotte, the bridegroom's sister-in-law; and Andrea Hutchinson of Waltz.

Seven-year old Amy Glover of Riverview carried a basket of flowers and wore a long peach dress for her role as flower girl. The bride's 13-year-old brother, Robert Jewell, was ringbearer.

Best man was Mark Hanna of New Boston. Groomsman included Todd Gaddy of Taylor and John Kozmor and Steve Kozmor of New Boston, brothers of the bridegroom.

An ivory silk corsage was pinned to the formal brown gown which Mrs. Jewell selected for the occasion while a blue floral arrangement accented the blue gown which the bridegroom's mother wore.

Following a reception for 250 guests at the Romulus Progressive Hall, the newlyweds departed for a week-long honeymoon at Niagara Falls.

Both young people graduated from Huron High School, the bridegroom in 1980 and his bride a year later. He is currently employed at Artcraft in Lincoln Park.

Goldie Kozmor was hostess at the rehearsal party held at her home on Sibley Road.

New arrival

Tara Dale Leirstein

Tara Dale Leirstein's debut on Nov. 2 turned the twosome of Gary and Terri Leirstein into an instant family. The newcomer, who bowed in at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor at 12:04 a.m., weighed 7 lbs. - 12 ozs. and measured 20 inches.

She is the new granddaughter of Dick and Pat Gamble of Belleville and the Irving Leirsteins of Westland.

She has two very proud great-grandmothers, Mrs. Florence Gamble of Ypsilanti and Mrs. Bernice Leirstein of Detroit, and an equally proud great-great-grandmother, Mrs. Lois Butler of Leamington, Ont., Canada.

The new mother is the former Terri Gamble.

At Study Club

CPR instructor is guest speaker

A teacher in the Van Buren School System, Virginia Schimmel, who is also an instructor in first aid with the American Red Cross, was guest speaker at the November meeting of the Belleville Women's Study Club held in the lounge of the First United Methodist Church.

Her program was an explanation and demonstration of coronary pulmonary resuscitation, a method recommended by the Red Cross to restore breathing to a choking individual. Accompanied by a film, Mrs. Schimmel's talk included the information that the Packard branch of the Red Cross offers an 8-hour training session in CPR.

The Public Affairs Department headed by Sally Griffith and including Leota Schweigert and Ada Peets arranged the program.

Girlstown is one of the projects sponsored by the Federation of Women's Clubs and Mary Claire Ellward, who is on the board of directors of the Southeastern District, reported on the Nov. 6 "Ingathering" which was held at the Belleville-based home. Some 192 Federation members from throughout the state attended with the Belleville and Clawson Junior Study Clubs providing refreshments.

Hostesses at the meeting were Phyllis Allion, Wilma Petrasky and Sze Chen.

Pilot program in art in progress at Edgemont

A new 10-week course in art education began Nov. 8 at Edgemont Elementary School with a local artist, Mrs. Kitty Davies, as instructor.

Sponsored by the Belleville Junior Study Club, the program, "Let's Put Arts in the Schools," is being promoted by the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs. The art classes are especially important in areas of Michigan such as Van Buren Township where funding-millage problems have forced cutbacks and cancellations of much needed art and music instructions in the public school system.

Mrs. Davies, a member of the Study Club, first conceived the idea of an art club in early fall when the most recent request for millage increases in the school system failed. She received approval from the general membership of her club, then approached Jon Hale, Edgemont School Principal, who agreed with the idea and, in turn, broached the subject to William Loyd, Director of Community Education for Van Buren

Public Schools.

The club thus established at Edgemont is a pilot project for similar programs throughout the system if funding and manpower can be located. This project is low budget with most of the work being done on a volunteer basis. The $10 dues are being used primarily to cover costs of materials.

Although she has no college level instruction in art education, Mrs. Davies is an accomplished artist and frequent participant in local art fairs and activities. She is instructing grades three to six in basic sketching, pastels, tempera and water colors. Connie Etter, also of the Study Club, will guest instruct in the field of clay modeling and 3-D relations while Pat Antonelli, club member and former elementary teacher, will donate her time to special talents as well. Erva Hassell, retired instructor from the Lansing area, will assist with basic lesson planning.

Charter members, grades three and four, of the Edgemont Art Club, are Wendy Ackron, Rebecca Bach, Joshua Boelter, Mark

Brooks, Jason Charlesworth, Joshua Davies, Ryan Davison, Heather Dickerson, Michael Elrod and William Faler.

Still others include Karrie Gebhardt, Kim Howard, Aaron Lauth, Richie Locke, Jennifer Merritt, Lisa McCully, Dawn Rochowiak, David Schroeder, Sherri Spraga, Michael Von Glahn and Christopher Young.

Grades five and six charter members are Kristen Bies, Michael Bird, Kelly Brown, Scott Gebhardt, Kelly Glasser, Allen Henderson, Jason Hendrix and Emilie Heuschkel.

Completing the membership are Earl Howell, Michael Johnson, Tricia Johnson, Bethany Le Blanc, Margaret Manning, Suzanne Marosi, Joseph Priebe, Matthew Ross, Eddy Trudi, Julie Zager and Martha Horste.

Although the pilot class at Edgemont was filled within a few days of the announcement, Mrs. Davies urges parents interested in similar projects in their own schools to contact their principals or Mr. Loyd at the administration building.

Short subjects

Cranberry is a classic during the holidays and it shows up in a variety of recipes. Whether served along with turkey or in a pie, cranberries are traditional.

Try something different this year — Cranberry Tapioca Pudding. It's an ideal family dessert over the holidays. Combine ½ cup sugar, ½ cup Minute tapioca and dash of salt in a saucepan. Add 2 cups cranberry juice cocktail and ½ cup water; let stand 5 minutes. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a boil. (Pudding thickens as it cools.) Remove from heat; cool 20 minutes; stir. Serve warm or chilled. Makes about 2½ cups or 5 servings.

College volleyball squad boasts local connection

The women's volleyball program at Henry Ford Community College has a distinctive Wayne-Westland look.

Coach Linda Petlichkoff, a teacher at Wayne Memorial High, is convinced that the local school district produces some of the most talented volleyball players in the state. And to prove her point, she has concentrated her recruiting efforts close to home.

No less than five freshmen from the Wayne-Westland area helped Henry Ford to an 11-10 record this season, including third-place finishes in the conference and at the regionals held recently at Schoolcraft College.

These freshmen — Terri Chapo, Sandy Cockrum, Kathy Wenzel,

Tammy Lail and Dawn Boyd — form the nucleus of a solid class for the 1983 squad.

A graduate of Westland John Glenn, Wenzel is attending Henry Ford on an academic scholarship. During her prep career she earned All-League and All-Area honorable mention as a two-year varsity performer.

Cockrum, who was selected to the All-Regional first team for her performance at Schoolcraft, earned most-valuable-player honors while at John Glenn. The setter also picked up All-League and All-Area plaudits during three years of varsity competition.

Boyd, a former co-captain of the John Glenn team, missed most of the year due to a stress fracture of her foot. The talented hitter capped a brilliant three-year stint on the Glenn varsity by winning All-League and All-Area (first team) acclaim as well as All-State (second team) awards following her senior campaign.

Lail served as captain for Wayne Memorial High's volleyball contingent as a senior, earning All-League status as a setter. Chapo was a varsity starter at John Glenn and is receiving athletic scholarship aid at Henry Ford along with teammates Cockrum, Boyd and Lail.

"We're looking to recruit some height for next year," Petlichkoff remarked. "We need more hitters."

Joni shows maturity

JONI MITCHELL
"Wild Things Run Fast"
(Geffen)

Joni Mitchell's musical direction has certainly taken some curves during her career, from the straight folk of "Blue" to the pop of "Court And Spark" to the jazz of "Mingus." This is — to me at least — a very welcome return to the dazzling pop of "Court And Spark."

The woman who over a decade ago sang "By the time I got to Woodstock" has matured decidedly during that time, and while "Wild Things Run Fast" isn't her most "grown up" album, it's definitely one of her most enjoyable ones.

One becomes aware early on that something's happening here, when in the midst of the opening cut, "Chinese Cafe," Joni slips into "Unchained Melody." Well, "slips" isn't really the right term — a head-first dive is more like it. Either way, it's a dramatic effect and it works. Enough said.

Her reading of the classic "You're So Square" Baby I Don't Care" is fantastic, reminding one just how much Mitchell has with avant-garde jazzist Annette Peacock. It's also quite sensual, in a California sort of way.

Other highlights include "Be Cool," a Rickie Lee Jones-ish bop-type number that uses a minimum of words to the maximum effect, "You Dream Flat Tires," and the blues-tinged "Moon At The Window." Welcome back Joni.

JOHN LENNON
"The John Lennon Collection"
(Geffen)

One might doubt the integrity of an LP such as this, obviously released just in time for the Christmas season to insure big bucks from the millions of music lovers who hold Lennon's works in high regard — even more so since his untimely death.

Indeed, one could point out that

House of Woo

Cantonese specialties offered for lunch, dinner

By DENNIS NIEMIEC
Feature Editor

It's called a "Yo Yo Platter" and features marinated beef, shrimp, barbecued spare ribs and egg rolls, all served in a uniquely styled, flaming hibachi.

Such appetizing delicacies are commonplace at Canton's House of Woo, 44011 Ford Road. Owner Yukiko ("Yo Yo") Woo provides Western Wayne County diners with a menu that ranges from the ordinary — fish, fried chicken, sirloin steak, etc. — to the exotic — Kushiagi, Tonkatsu, Woo Dip Harr, etc.

Since the untimely death of her husband, Mr. Ed Woo, Mrs. Woo has made few changes at this four-year-old establishment. But there hasn't been any need to.

"Our customers keep coming back," Mrs. Woo noted. "Everybody has been very supportive and it's much appreciated."

The owner credits chefs Hank and Don Lim along with son, Paul for consistently producing a variety of tasty dishes. Variety is a simple understatement when one considers what this 90-seat restaurant has to offer.

Dinner choices include six combination plates — egg foo young ($4.85), sweet and sour pork ($5.85), Chinese fried shrimp ($6.35), pork chow mein ($5.65), almond chicken ($6.35) and chicken Hong Kong ($6.85). Egg roll, fried rice, soup or tomato juice, coffee or tea and dessert are added at no extra charge.

Beef, pork, seafood and chicken entrees start at $6.15 and feature the best in Chinese-style cooking. One of the big favorites here is the almond chicken, a tender breast of chicken, dipped in egg batter, then deep fried and topped with fresh Chinese vegetables and crushed almonds.

Cantonese dinners, including sweet and sour specialties, chop suey and egg foo young, and various American entrees round out the dinner menu.

For those interested in the house specials, House of Woo provides chicken teriyaki ($5.50) on Thursdays; Kushiagi ($5.95), a pork with marinated sauce dish on Fridays; fresh fish ($5.50) on Fridays, and Tonkatsu ($5.95), a Japanese-style pork cutlet, on Sundays. Other specials are listed at the restaurant on weekends.

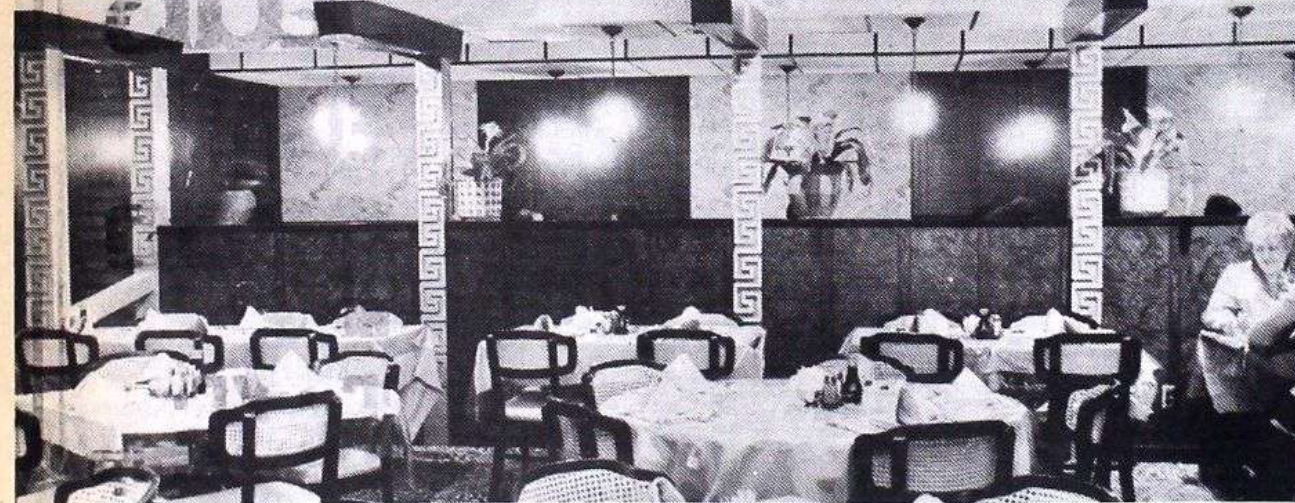

Specials are served with an egg roll, soup or salad, tea or coffee and dessert. To supplement the dining experience, a wide range of exotic cocktails, wine and various alcoholic beverages are available.

Lunches, served from 11 a.m. until 3 p.m., are moderately priced in both Cantonese and American offerings. Chinese combination plates are highly recommended for their diversity (egg foo young, pork, beef or chicken chow mein, shrimp and almond chicken) and their affordability ($2.45 to $3.65).

The House of Woo is open from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m., Mondays thru Thursdays; from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. Fridays; noon to 11 p.m. Saturdays, and noon to 10 p.m. Sundays. The restaurant will be closed on Thanksgiving (call 981-0501 for catering or carryout service).

Mrs. Woo, a native of Japan, is the mother of three sons (Paul, Ray and Tom) and one daughter, Cathy.

Whether the diner prefers Cantonese or American dishes, the House of Woo in Canton fits the appetite quite nicely. Under the watchful eye of owner Mrs. Yukiko Woo, this restaurant offers a wide variety of beef, pork, seafood and chicken based Chinese selections as well as the traditional American choices. Open seven days a week, the comfortable dining area seats up to 100 persons with carryout service also available. Exotic cocktails and alcoholic beverages are served for lunch and dinner. The establishment is located at 44011 Ford Road.

Ballet in Ypsilanti

Suzanne DeBrincat (back) of Westland and Suzanne Kondor will be among the performers as the Ypsilanti Area Dancers present The Nutcracker Ballet at 3 and 7:30 p.m. Dec. 4 and 3 p.m. Dec. 5 at the Ypsilanti High School Auditorium. DeBrincat, the daughter of Frank and Susan De-Brincat of Westland, has performed with the Ypsilanti group for two years. Also in the cast is Steven Mato, the son of Leslie and Dorothy Mato of Westland. Tickets are priced at $4 for adults and $2 for children 12 and under.

Music provides nice gift

all but two of the songs here were on either Lennon's earlier "greatest hits" album, "Shaved Fish," or "Double Fantasy," the last record he ever made. But why?

Taken on its own, "The John Lennon Collection" is a fine sampling of the man's work, from "Love," taken from the brilliant "Plastic Ono Band" album, to "Beautiful Boy," a tribute to his son Sean, and one of the last songs he ever wrote.

Early hits like "Power To The People" are included alongside brilliant pieces of songwriting like "Jealous Guy," one of the hardest hitting songs about love ever recorded.

There is one problem though. Sure, the 15 songs included on the album are very satisfying, and it's a very nice package. However, the cassette version of "The John Lennon Collection" adds two more songs: the hauntingly beautiful "Happy X-Mas (War Is Over)," and an often overlooked gem from the great "Rock 'N' Roll" LP, "Stand By Me."

Surely it would have made for a better selection to have added these two cuts to the album in place of a couple of the tracks from "Double Fantasy," which is represented here by six songs.

As it is, I recommend the "John Lennon Collection" album to anyone under, say, 40 or so, for your shopping list this Christmas. And then buy the Cassette for yourself.

Prominent dealers to visit numismatic event set in Dearborn

The Lincoln Coin Club will host the 27th annual fall convention of the Michigan State Numismatic Society on Nov. 26 through 28 in the Exposition Hall at the Hyatt-Regency Hotel in Dearborn. There is no admission charge.

Some 150 prominent dealers from around the country are expected to attend. An auction will feature many top lots of U.S., foreign, ancient coins and paper money.

One highlight will feature The American Numismatic Authentication and Certification Service as Staffers Tom DeLorey and Tommy Acker will be on hand for the entire three-day show to evaluate coins and render opinions free of charge to all convention visitors interested in this service.

"A Sunday Afternoon with ANAC's" will feature a talk session and slide program. No registration is necessary and the event is free of charge to the public.

An Educational Forum will feature Anthony Swiatek, noted author and expert on commemorative coins. Mini-investment programs will be scheduled daily by Gary Adkins, ANA District Representative.

The annual president's breakfast, traditionally held on Saturday morning, will see a gathering of participating club presidents along with several invited guests and program participants.

Mrs. Felix Schlag, widow of the designer of the Jefferson Nickel, has been invited to be the honored guest of the Michigan State Numismatic Society and the Host Club at all functions of the Convention.

Saturday morning will bring the young collectors together. After registration, they will be treated to a luncheon sponsored by Time Investments of Livonia. The afternoon will feature speakers, a magic bid auction and door prizes with the grand door prize, donated by Ed Marusak of Central Coin & Stamp of Detroit, to be given at the end of their program.

Meeting space has been provided to the Paper Money Collectors of Michigan, the Michigan Token & Medal Society, and the Early American Coppers Club.

Auditions set

The Spotlight Players will conduct auditions for "Inherit the Wind" at 7:30 p.m. December 3 and 4 at St. John's Episcopal Church, 555 S. Wayne Road in Westland.

Nineteen male parts will be cast along with five female roles, one male child and one female child. Further information can be obtained by contacting Mary Cabello at 595-6117.

Popp paces
All-Area
grid offense

The ultimate accolade of a high school football team in Michigan is to reach the post season playoffs, then go on to capture the coveted state championship.

Two area teams - Livonia Franklin and Plymouth Salem - came very close. Upsets late in the season sidetracked the two area teams which captured their respective league championships. Both lost to clubs that are in the Class A state finals.

Franklin pressed Dearborn Fordson to the ropes before falling 7-3 while Salem made Farmington Harrison provide more than ample proof that it belonged in the playoffs.

Westland John Glenn joins Franklin and Salem in providing the nucleus for this year's All-Area High School Football Offensive Team. It is a team that would compare with the best of any past line-up seen on these pages. Intense and devoted to the game, these young players will go on to star on collegiate clubs in Michigan and across the nation.

One major reason why Livonia Franklin managed to win eight of nine games this year and went on to capture the Northwest Suburban Conference title and was ranked fourth in the state is due to the super effort of quarterback Rich Popp.

POPP drove the Patriots within one game of a postseason playoff berth and assured the 1982 Patriots of greatness by coming within inches of defeating Fordson, a team that probably will become the next Class A state champ.

The 5-10, 195-pound senior was called into action as a regular starter in the first game of his junior year when the starting QB sustained an injury.

"Rich is an excellent leader and his teammates respect him for his intelligence and athletic ability," said Franklin coach Armand Vigna.

Popp gained confidence in his junior year and came into his senior year ready to play. He completed 90 out of 191 passes for 1395 yards and 15 touchdowns, all school records.

One of Popp's favorite receivers, Chris Lewis, was selected as one of the All-Area's three top receivers. Lewis caught 13 passes for 209 yards, many of them in clutch situations. Ted Mills and Bob Stebbins, who gave excellent protection to their quarterback all season long, were two of the four All-Area offensive linemen.

Popp has three of the finest runningbacks in the state to utilize in the backfield. They are Todd Jennings, Westland John Glenn's record setting ballcarrier, Plymouth Salem's Scott Jurek, only one of two juniors to break into what is otherwise a senior-dominated offensive line-up, and Shaun Boyer, Wayne Memorial's offensive mainstay.

In the pits where the game is won, the ANP has the margin of victory thanks to ends Dave Houle (Plymouth Salem), Bob Wasczenski (Plymouth Canton) and Chris Lewis (Livonia Franklin). The line is made up of Ted Mills (Livonia Franklin), Ron LaFramboise (Belleville), Bob Stebbins (Livonia Franklin), and John Cruse (Plymouth Canton).

The ANP has selected two seniors - Rich Wood (Livonia Franklin) and Ron Rich (Belleville) as the kickers.

JENNINGS was the Rocket aggressor. Opponents knew that they had to stop this fine 5-11, 180-pound senior in order to stop Glenn. Although two of Glenn's nine opponents managed to taint the Westland based high school's record, no one can blame Jennings. He was almost unstoppable.

Named to most post season honor teams, Jennings' credentials included 1,077 yards rushing (only a handful who reached the coveted 1,000) on 196 carries. In addition, Todd broke the school scoring record with 113 points. He has excellent speed and had TD runs of 80 and 79 yards.

JUREK is a hard-nosed fullback who doubled as a defensive end for Coach Tom Moshimer's Rocks. A 6-1, 185-pound junior who is a second year varsity player, Scott is considered one of the smartest and most versatile players on the team.

He started as both defensive end and fullback for Salem because of his ability and coachability. He probably could play at any position.

As a fullback Scott was the workhorse. He carried the ball 116 times this season for 761 yards (over 1/2 of their rushing yardage) and 11 TD's. This gave him an average of 6.6 yards per carry and when he was not carrying the ball Jurek was one of Salem's best blocking backs. He was "Player of the Week" three times and Offensive back of the week five times this season for the Rocks.

As a two year starter at defensive end (outside backer) Scott has been outstanding. He has intercepted three passes, one for 90 yards and a TD. He is already being considered by several major colleges as an outside linebacker. He is a fine young man and extremely coachable and was also named to the First Team Lakes Division.

BOYER, a sturdy 5-10, 175-pound senior built for speed, simply outran defenders all year long. He forced Wayne Memorial's opponents to double team him, thus giving the Zebras apparent options.

"We have had some fine athletes here at Wayne," says Coach Floyd Carter, "and Shaun has to rank among the best of them. Our team had their problems this year, but I would hate to think what would have happened if we didn't have Boyer in there." Boyer amassed 687 yards rushing and scored five touchdowns.

HOULE is a versatile athlete who is ending an outstanding career at Salem.

He had 25 receptions for 338 yards and 3 TD's. "Due to the nature of our option oriented offense we have a total of only 655 yards passing (40 receptions) in 9 games. Dave has more than half of our pass offense. He is a great blocker and is being considered by several major colleges as a prospect at tight end," coach Moshimer said.

Dave has been named player of the week three times and offensive lineman of the week five times and defensive lineman of the week once.

As a defensive end, he has three QB sacks and three "Hits of the Week". He is a two-year starter on offense and was named to the second Team All Suburban Eight Team as a junior, and first Team Western Lakes - 1982.

WASCZENSKI "helped turn the football program around at Canton", according to Coach Rich Barr whose Chiefs posted a 5-4 won-lost record and thus became the first team in the history of the young school to wind up with more wins than losses on the gridiron.

The 6-3, 205-pound tight end, Wasczenski caught 30 passes, 10 of them going for touchdowns.

"It helps to know we have him back for another year," said Barr of his fine college prospect "Bob is an excellent all-around athlete and always give you 100 percent in anything he does."

Most of the fans don't recognize the work accomplished by the offensive line. Up front is where the "holes" are made for the running stars. Players, such as Mills, Stebbins, LaFramboise and Cruse have earned the respect of teammate and opponent alike because of the jobs they do.

"The line will make or break you," noted Vigna. "If the kids up front do the job, then everybody looks good. Let them crumble, and nothing goes well. And it's a long year."

(THE ASSOCIATE NEWSPAPERS Will continue its coverage of the high school season next week when it unfolds its top defensive players of 1982 along with the Honorable Mention)

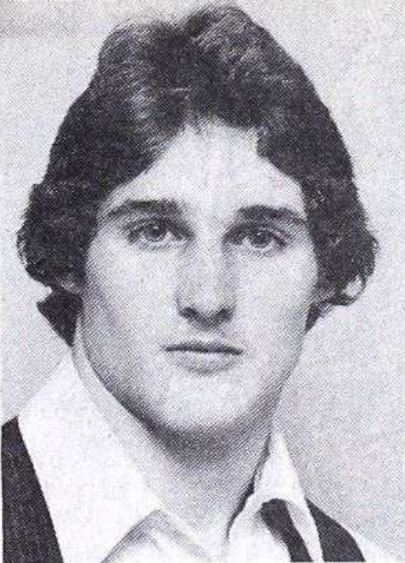

ANP kickers

The Associated Newspapers is literally "Rich" in kickers this year. Two outstanding athletes, Belleville's Ron Rich, and Livonia Franklin's Rich Wood, provided their respective teams with key and crucial field goals and a punting game that made the difference.

"Wood gave us good field position at crucial times," said Franklin coach Armand Vigna. "He also came through for us on three field goals and averaged more than 30 yard per punt."

Rich was the margin of victory in at least three of the four Belleville wins.

"No doubt about it, Ron was one of, if not the, greatest kicker we have had at this high school in recent years," said Belleville Coach Michael Colletta.

'Coach of the Year'

Vigna earns post-season accolades

What a difference a year makes. Twelve months ago Livonia Franklin had nearly lost its football identity and was mired in the middle of the Northwest Suburban Conference standings with a 5-4 over-all record.

In 1982, Coach Armand Vigna and his Patriots emerged with one of their finest teams to retake the conference crown and come within one game of a post-season playoffs. Their lone setback, a 7-3 thriller at the hands of state finalist, Dearborn Fordson, is the only mar on what was an almost a perfect season.

For the 8-1 record and his outstanding coaching, the Associated Newspapers bestows yet another honor upon Vigna. He is named the ANP's "Coach of the Year."

Vigna, 47, has been coaching for 24 years and has been head coach at Franklin for the past eight. His teams have always been "tough" and in 1975 he coached his gridders to the state championship, the first time the state ever held the play-offs.

The Franklin coach ranks this year's club among the best he has ever coached.

"We have had some great ones in the past," Vigna said, "but this year's team is definitely one of our best. And I feel the reason why they reached greatness was their spirit of cooperativeness on and off the gridiron."

Family Heating pacesetters end 6-game winning streak

It took nine weeks, and a determined All-Sorts Sports team, for Family Heating to digest its first setback. The Bonkowski Division pacesetters saw its six-game winning streak halted 5-2 at the hands of All-Sorts Sports in the Over 30 Wayne-Westland Hockey League. All Sorts Sports came out skating to set down Family Heating in a hard-skating contest.

Ten Pin Topics

Bowlers are getting 'hot'

By JIM WRUBLEWSKI

The "HOT STREAK." That time in bowling when the alley conditions, your delivery, and timing are just right. It seems that you can produce high scores for more than just one game or one series with no effort what-so-ever. The game seems to be so easy and so much fun that you just can't wait to get back on the lanes. That seems to be the order of the day with the younger set this week.

At Super Bowl 15-year-old Collen Chrysler followed last week's 692 with games of 242-226-184 for a 654 series; and, at Westland Bowl, 16-year-old Donn Wolfe made it two 700 plus series in a row on games of 258-214-267 for 739.

Also at Westland Bowl, Ed McKenna started off his Sunday morning in the Sleepers League with a 703 series, then moved to the opposite end of the house for a make-up match and total 705 for the second match to make his day worthwhile.

Sandy Rodriguez decided to celebrate her birthday, Tuesday,

November 16th, with a nice 241 game; Jerry Cole Jr. went downhill in a way anyone of us would like to by shooting games of 248-247-246 for 741; Ken McNabb got progressively better with games of 214-248-268 for 730; Jim Jesson hit 257-222-236 for a 715 series, and for the younger set, Jeff Colliau had games of 209 and 256 on his way to a 654 total.

At Wayne Bowl the 12 years and under group had a pair of Thomas' share the honors with Laurie Thomas going 50 pins over average in one game with a 133 and Shawn Thomas going over average by 63 pins for a 196 game.

Lodge Lanes leaders this week were Bob Makowski with a 279 game and Bob Albright with a 720 series. Town & Country Lanes highlights include Rick Lang with 236-201-267 for a 704, Mark Katic at 633; and Bill Kindree finishing with a 618. In the "big shooter" category at Super Bowl, 185 average, Bruce Brown, hit 276-251-214 for 741; Ron Eisenbeis had 228-244-248 for 720; and Mike Goins had a 702 series. Joe Guagliaro, with a 170 average, went 174 pins over with games of 209-248-227, and Ron Baj rolled that illusive all spare game on his way to a 179 score.

On the so-called distaff side Sheila Webb had games of 215 and 204 for her first ever 600 series; Cindy Adkins dominated action with games of 234 and 233 on her way to a 635; Nita Urban had 226 for 628; and Sandy Goga had a pair of 216s and a 608 total.

It is always nice to have more and more people trying the game of bowling for the first time, but it is especially pleasant to hear that newcomers are joining the blind bowling league. In this category we had Lula Clark, who has only bowled two weeks and is carrying a 61 average, go 90 pins over for a 273 series and totally blind Aldon Richardson go 98 pins over his average to more than double his usual three game total.

An invitational type tournament for men who have recorded a sanctioned 700 series or better is being held at Westland Bowl on weekends during December. Bowlers may enter more than once with the repeat entries at a reduced cost. Contact Bob Pniewski at PA2-7570 for further details and reservations.

Jake's Lounge rallied for three goals in the final period against Futurama to card a 4-2 victory.

Brock Builders put the squeeze on Mic-Dago Pub by skating to an 11-3 victory. A pair of hat tricks for Brock's went to Dave Frankling and Ron Swider.

On Sunday, Nov. 28, Tastee Freez will take on Johnson's Carbonic at 6 p.m.; Mic-Dago Pub will host Jake's Lounge at 7:15 p.m.; All Sorts Sports will meet Little Bill's Trophies at 8:30 p.m.; Etronic and Futurama have a game at 9:45 p.m.; and the nightcap scheduled for 11 p.m. has Family Heating and Brock Builders set to square off.

Tell me about your high gas heating bills and I'll tell you how you can save up to 20%* with Ameri-Therm.

For years I've talked with people who are tired of wasting fuel and money. Gas rates keep going up, so they come to me for advice. Every day, for homeowners like you, I correct the money-wasting problem of gas energy loss with Ameri-Therm® Vent Dampers. The problem is very common: When a furnace, boiler or water heater shuts off, warm air is quickly lost up the chimney. Energy escapes, but you still end up paying for it. People want to save as much as they can, so I tell them to keep heat inside with an Ameri-Therm Vent Damper.

Ameri-Therm is the thermally actuated vent damper that's:

- Proven in millions of locations.
- Saves up to 20%* on fuel bills.
- Popular choice of American homeowners.
- Five year limited warranty.
- Thermally actuated to operate efficiently with no wires, electricity, or other power source.
- Eligible for 15% tax credit.
- Available for gas furnaces, boilers and water heaters.
